

On behalf of the Italy-based travel agency Happy Days Travel, Ecotouring Tuscany offers journeys to exciting destinations in a style that had been defined by its creator and director, Adriano Boncompagni.

Adriano Boncompagni holds a Ph.D. in Geography and has lectured Historical Geography of Tuscany at academic level across the world. He has worked and travelled extensively from Tuscany to California, Cambodia to Australia, and from Vietnam to Egypt.

All our guides are residents of Italy and consequently have an inside knowledge of the area. Among them you will find experts in anthropology, archaeology, architecture, art history, as well as numerous other specializations. They are all bilingual, jovial, fun-loving, and pleased to help you even when you go on a shopping spree.

Flexibility and spontaneity prompted by an intimate knowledge of the region, supported by thorough organization and care for detail: these are the hallmarks of every Ecotouring Tuscany tour (not to speak of all the good fun involved..).

We welcome any enquires regarding transportation, places of interests, accommodation, tour guiding, ecological as well as cultural tourism in Tuscany and Central Italy. Contact us at:

Ecotouring Tuscany

Ecotouring Tuscany organizes and manages a wide range of cultural and environmental tours in the regions of Tuscany, Umbria and of Central Italy: art and history tours, hiking and biking tours, wine and gourmet tours, cooking and painting classes, courses of Italian language and culture, to name a few.

You may notice that there is not a precise schedule of most excursions, since the real strength of Ecotouring Tuscany is that we are flexible so to adjust to each traveller's needs.

We do design personalized tours for solo travellers, couples and small groups of participants.

We balance adventure with comfort in exceptional vacations. Our walks are about freedom - yours! Every Ecotouring Tuscany Travel Experience is about you seeing the world at your own pace.

So what sets Ecotouring Tuscany far above the others?

The answer is Personal attention to each guest travelling with us. We don't want you to feel like you are just part of a group. Rather, we want you to know that we have taken the time to get to know you, your personal tastes, interests and activity levels. This helps us shape each trip to meet your needs as we travel together. Our goal is to make your vacation not only as personally satisfying as possible, but one that far exceeds your expectations.

- Numerous easy-going activity options. You will select from a range of biking, walking and non-walking choices not offered by other tour operators;

- Cozy inns and lodgings are always available, whether you join us on one of our cultural walks, a cooking trip through the Chianti, or choose one of our Tuscan farms stays, old palaces and convents;

- Food and wine while walking. Tuscany and other regions in Central Italy display individual aspects of Italian culture and history, and these will be brought to life by our friendly and expert guides.
